THE

DUBLIN REVIEW.

72.

VOL. XX. NEW SERIES.

JANUARY—APRIL,

MDCCCLXXIII.

PUBLIC LIBRARY,
DETROIT, MICH.
SEP 17 1888

LONDON:

BURNS, OATES, & CO., 17 & 18, PORTMAN STREET,

AND 63 PATERNOSTER ROW.

DERBY: RICHARDSON & SONS.

DUBLIN: JAMES DUFFY; W. B. KELLY; McGLASHAN & GILL.

BALTIMORE: KELLY, PIET & CO.

MONTREAL, CANADA: SADLER & CO.

1873.

LONDON
WYMAN AND SONS, PRINTERS, GREAT QUEEN STREET,
LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS, W.C.

CONTENTS.

ART. I.—IRELAND IN THE REIGN OF JAMES I.

Difficulties in the way of Irish historians 2
Importance of the documents now published 4
Misery of Ireland at the accession of James I. 6
Cruelty of the Council to the poor Irish in London 10
Ravages by the English soldiery. 13
Advice of Queen Elizabeth to the Irish officials 15
Extortions of Sir George Carey 18
Depreciation of the currency in Ireland 20
Confiscation of the lands of the native Irish. 25
Off-handed proceedings of the English officials in Ireland . . . 28
Pathetic condition of the Church in Ireland. 31
Religious persecution by James 32
Sir John Davys on the absence of religious instruction. . . . 34
King James's views for the plantation of Ireland. 38
The mistaken policy of Queen Elizabeth and James I. 41
Its failure 44
Results which might have occurred from a change in that policy . . 46
Verdict of Posterity on James I.. 48

ART II.—THE LABOURERS AND POLITICAL ECONOMY.

Recent movement of the agricultural labourers 49
Objection drawn from political economy 50
True province of that science 51
Recent exposure of Malthus's doctrine on population 53

ART III.—A STUDY OF RELATIONS.

The Hegelian resolution of Being into Relation 60
Objection anticipated that abstractions are nothing 61
Division of Relation into Predicamental and Transcendental . . 64
Metaphysical constitution of things by Act and Term 66
Example of Act and Term in the constitution of matter . . . 67
What a Transcendental Relation is the complement 70
Predicamental Relation 72
Man's Inchoative and precisive knowledge of the Absolute . . . 75
God's knowledge of the Absolute 76

ART. IV.—THE QUEEN'S COLLEGES IN IRELAND.

Intention of Parliament in founding the Queen's Colleges . . . 77
General opinions on the necessity for their establishment . . . 78
Necessity for a thorough matriculation examination 78
The proposed curriculum of the Queen's University 80
Failure of the scheme of the founders 83
Evidence of Mr. Thompson upon that point. 86
Mr. Killeen's evidence on the decline in the number of pupils . . 88
Divergence from the original ideas of the founders 90
"Honour" Graduates and "Pass" Graduates 93
The examinations 95
Want of rudimentary knowledge in the pupils 99
Intra-collegiate examinations 102
Necessity for a revision of the whole scheme 103

ART. V.—ITALIAN ARCHITECTURE.

Introductory remarks upon a former article. 104
All styles of architecture suited to the requirements of Christian worship 105
The wise inspiration of the Pope in adopting the Italian style for St. Peter's 107
The beauty and majesty of the Gothic, and the strength and unity of the Italian styles, compared 108
The chief characteristic of the Italian style 110
Reasons for the adoption among the Northern nations of the Gothic instead of the Italian style 113
The greater expense of Italian churches 117
Italian churches best suited for the ceremonies of the Church . . 118
Conclusion 119

ART. VI.—IRISH PRIESTS AND LANDLORDS.

Attempted defence of Galway landlords 120
The Galway tenant farmers unanimously favoured Nolan on public grounds 121
Extenuating circumstances in the landlords' case. 122
Reasons why every Galway priest should have worked heartily for Nolan 125
Inestimable blessing of the priests' political leadership in Ireland . 126
Grievous increase of Irish animosity towards England inevitably increased by the Keogh judgment 13

ART. VII.—REPLY TO M. RENOUF BY F. BOTTALLA.

Was Pope Honorius condemned for heresy? 137
Pope Agatho's Letter 140
Authority of the Sixth General Synod. 142
The charge of negligence 145
The Second profession of Faith 146
Reasons of Pope Honorius's condemnation 148
Conduct of the trial 150
Distinction drawn between Honorius and the Monotholites. . . . 152
M. Renouf's inferences from the decree 154
The Letter of Honorius 156

ART. VIII.—THE VATICAN COUNCIL.

Opening of the Council 160
The predicted schism 161
Characteristics of the Vatican Council. 163
Work of Quirinus 165
The present Pope 167
The sanctimonious Methodist 169
Quirinus on the Pope's character 170
On Archbishop Manning 171
The Minority 172
The Majority 175
Quirinus's scientific history 177
His high theology 180
Œcumenicity of the Council in its final issue 189
Dogmatic Constitution on the Catholic Faith 193
Dogmatic Constitution on the Church 199
Dr. Dollinger's Lectures on Re-union 204

NOTE TO THE THIRD ARTICLE OF OUR LAST NUMBER . . . 208

ART. IX.—NOTICES OF BOOKS.

Archbishop Manning's Sermons on Ecclesiastical Subjects . . . 209
Mr. Gladstone's Address delivered at the Liverpool Collegiate Institution 212
My Clerical Friends, and their Relation to Modern Thought . . 213
Dr. Newman's Difficulties felt by Anglicans in Catholic Teaching. Dr. Newman's Historical Sketches. Part II. 220
Canon Oakeley's Lectures on the Athanasian Creed 221
Canon Oakeley's Catholic Worship 222
Mr. E. H. Thompson's Hidden Life of Jesus 222
Rev. H. Formby's Book of the Holy Rosary. 225

Norwich Cathedral Argumentative Discourses in Defence and Confirmation of the Faith 230
Mr. Beale's Mystery of Life. 235
Mr. P. R. Birk's Scripture Doctrine of Creation 242
Dr. Melia's Hints and Facts on the Origin, Condition, and Destiny of Man. 249
Earl of Crawford's Etruscan Inscriptions analysed 250
Mr. Baring-Gould's Lives of the Saints 255
Baron Hübner's Life and Times of Sixtus the Fifth 258
Mr. Lecky's Criticism of Mr. Froude's "English in Ireland." . . 259
Mr. Jervis's The Gallican Church 259
Mr. Meline's Mary Queen of Scots, and her latest English Historian . 264
Rev. J. Balme's Easy Demonstration and Catechism of Religion . . 271
Passion Flower. A Novel 272
The Merchant of Antwerp 273
M. L'Abbé Pichou's Life of Monseigneur Berneux 275
The Crusade, or Catholic Association for the Suppression of Drunkenness 276
The Illustrated Catholic Magazine 278
The Catholic Family Almanack 278
Madame Craven's Fleurange 279
Dr. Stoltz's Whither shall we go? 279
Filiola; Earnscliffe Hall; and the Reverse of the Medal . . . 279
S. Helena, or the Finding of the Holy Cross 279
The Confessional Unmasked, or the Revelations 280
Dr. Stoltz's Witch Mania of the Learned World 280
Miss Lee's Heart of Myrrha Lake 280
Maxims of the Kingdom of Heaven 280

CONTENTS.

ART. I.—THE RELATION OF SCHOLASTIC TO MODERN PHILOSOPHY.

Place of Philosophy in Catholic Teaching 281
Mr. Hutton and Mr. Martineau 282
Dr. Jowett's Plato 284
Philosophy at Oxford 286
Aristotle and the Schoolmen 288
His doctrine of Form 292
Its application to the Soul 297
The theory of Cognition 299
Mr. Martineau on Force 304
The work of Kant 307
Mr. Hutton on the Existence of God 314
His Essay on Romanism, Protestantism, and Anglicanism . . . 317
His Essay on the Fourth Gospel 323

ART. II.—THE TRUE MISSION OF THE TEUTONIC RACE.

The great Eastern migration 326
The Germanic Race 328
Their System of Government 329
Mission of the Roman Empire 330
The Church and the Barbarians 332
The work of S. Benedict 336
S. Columban's rule 339
S. Gregory and S. Augustine 340
The Saxon Royal Saints 345
S. Boniface and his work 347
His martyrdom 354
Mission of the Teutonic Race 355

ART. III.—LITERATURE AND DOGMA.

Demise of Protestantism 357
Dr. Strauss and Mr. Mathew Arnold 359
Mr. Arnold on the Trinity 361

His views of the Bible 362
Of our Lord's character 367
Of the Holy Ghost 370
Mr. Arnold on the Resurrection of Lazarus 373
Modern Men of Science 374
Mr. Leslie Stephen on the Religious State of England . . . 377
A word of advice to Mr. Arnold 379

ART. IV.—THE GORDON RIOTS.

State of the English Catholics in 1778 381
Sir George Saville's Bill 383
Action of the Scotch Protestants 384
The Edinburgh Riots 386
The Protestant Association 389
Character of Lord George Gordon 391
The Protestant Petition 393
The No-Popery mob invest Parliament 396
Conduct of the two Houses 399

ART. V.—THE CHURCH AND MODERN MEN OF SCIENCE.

Character of M. de Candolle's Book 402
Protestantism and Scientific Culture 403
Catholicism and Science 405
M. de Candolle and Mr. Galton on Celibacy 407
Democracy and Science 410
Progress of Political Decentralization 412
Probable Growth of various Nations 414
Natural Selection 416
The Future of the Human Race 418

ART. VI.—MR. FROUDE ON THE ENGLISH IN IRELAND.

The Office of the Historian 421
Mr. Froude's qualities as such 422
His "Preliminary" 424
His view of the Irish Character 426

The Normans 429
The Undertakers 431
The Cromwellians 432
Irish Cowardice 434
The Scotch 435
The Faith of the Irish 436
The chapter on Abduction 438
Irish Lawlessness 439
Responsibility of the English for Irish lawlessness 441
Necessity of a new Cromwellian Policy 443
Irish Loyalty 444
Fenianism 446

ART. VII.—THE IRISH UNIVERSITY BILL.

Introduction of Mr. Gladstone's Bill 449
Subsequent tsate of Public Opinion 450
Resolutions of the Irish Bishops 451
Debate on Second Reading 453
Mr. Cardwell's Speech 454
Mr. Disraeli 455
Mr. Gladstone 458
Defeat of the Government 461
The Archbishop's Speech at Liverpool 462
Previous Negotiations of the Irish Bishops on the subject of University Education 463
Prospects of the Question 469

ART. VIII.—NOTICES OF BOOKS.

F. Coleridge's Life and Letters of S. Francis Xavier 470
Mr. Dods' Works of Aurelius Augustine 471
Herr Fröhlich's "Old Catholics" at Cologne 481
Dr. Molloy's Visit to Louise Lateau 486
Dr. Hutchinson Stirling's As Regards Protoplasm 488
Dr. Fitz-Patrick's Irish Wits and Worthies 498
Dr. M'Cosh's Christianity and Positivism 503
Dr. Meadows' Biological Science in relation to Religious Belief . 506
Mr. St. George Mivart's Lessons in Elementary Anatomy . . . 508
S. Anselm's Book of Meditations 513
The Divine Sequence 515

Mr. Bagshawe's Threshhold of the Catholic Church 517
Mrs. Parsons' Life of S. Ignatius 518
Mr. Healy Thompson's Life of Baron de Renty 519
M. Boudon's Book of Perpetual Adoration 521
Church Defence 522
S. Joseph : his Life and Character 525
Mr. Finotti's Bibliographia Catholica Americana 527
F. Beste's May Chaplet 528
Mr. Bateman's Ierne of Armorica 530